

The Jim Swaebby Peace Award Nomination Form

You are invited to nominate a candidate for the Jim Swaebby Peace Award. The Award is presented by Boulder Rotary to recognize a person or persons for outstanding achievement consistent with the ideals of Rotary as expressed in the Fourth Object of Rotary: "The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service."

The award commemorates the contribution of Boulder Rotarian Jim Swaebby who gave of his time, talent, humor and passion to build a better world. Jim was a Peace Corps volunteer in Tonga and business man who contributed to the community and world in numerous ways. In ways unseen in most cases he carried out a life mission to "do an unexpected act of kindness or generosity for someone less privileged."

The winner will have his/her/their name and the name of their organization, if applicable, inscribed in a plaque to be placed in a prominent position for the community to see. The award will be announced throughout Rotary and local newspapers.

Criteria for the Award

The recipient:

- An individual who lives or works in Boulder County or an organization based in Boulder County.
- Is making a significant contribution to building a culture of peace in our community or throughout the world.
- Exemplifies the life of Jim Swaebby and Rotary's commitment to peace.
